Heritage Monday, August 7th Official Program

Cinema Rialto and La Residenza al Parco

Locarno Pro is proud to present Heritage Monday: this exclusive day offers a unique opportunity to explore the current landscape of theatrical distribution, exhibition, and streaming of classic films. At the heart of Heritage Monday are engaging panel discussions, where industry experts will share their insights on the heritage film distribution landscape today. The event will feature speakers from prominent film studios, archives, and organizations, including Ronald Chammah from Les Film Camelia, Frédéric Maire from Cinémathèque Suisse, Elise Cochin from MK2, Jaume Ripoll from Filmin, K.J. Relth-Miller from the Academy Museum, and Erin Farrell from Film Movement. In addition to the panel discussions, there will be an exciting presentation of freshly restored films that are market-ready once again. Two standout films, La porte du Soleil by Yousri Narsullah (2004 and freshly restored by the Locarno Film Festival thanks to a partnership with Cinegrell) and Si le soleil ne revenait pas by Claude Goretta (1987), will be showcased, highlighting the restoration process and their current commercial status. As part of Heritage Monday, a selection of brand new restored classic films will be screened, including White Room (4K Restoration) by Patricia Rozema, Milano Calibro 9 (4K Restoration) by Fernando di Leo, All Can Happen by Marcel Lozinski, La Paloma by Daniel Schmid, Waalo Fendo (là où la terre gèle) by Mohammed Soudani, California Straight Ahead by Harry A. Pollard, Alphaville, une étrange aventure de Lemmy Caution by Jean-Luc Godard, TAMARO. Pietre e angeli. Mario Botta Enzo Cucchi by Villi Hermann.
